

The organization reported a net profit of $1.2 million for the fiscal year, driven primarily by a strong performance in its core service offerings. Revenue increased by 15% from the previous year, reaching $8 million. Operating costs were well-managed, with a 5% increase in expenses. The balance sheet shows a healthy cash position with minimal debt, allowing the organization to reinvest in growth initiatives. The overall financial health of the organization is strong, with robust profit margins and a solid financial foundation.